Dear Mrs. Manley:

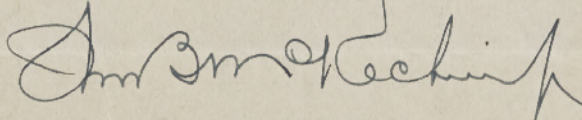

This will acknowledge your two letters of May 22nd and 23rd.

I am sincerely sorry about the misunderstanding concerning your game May 29th in Trenton, but I do not believe that we will have the occurrence again.

We want you to feel that you are thoroughly welcome in Trenton and shall do all we can to prove that to you. I am at the moment holding June 19th through the 21st for you and will appreciate an early word if you use one of those dates. I have no other clubs asking for dates beyond that time and so will hold those until I hear from you.

Best wishes.

Yours very truly,

Wm. B. McKechnie, Jr.
